1730. XIII. THAT no yearly Allowance, or present Support, by Way of Charity, be granted to any Alderman, Sheriff's-Peer, or Common-Council-man, or to any Person or Persons in Trust for them, or for their Use, or for the Support or Use of their Wives, Children, or Families, until such Time as such Alderman, Sheriff's-Peer, or Common-Council-Man do first resign to the City their respective Places or Offices.

XIV. THAT

XIV. THAT no Sum whatsoever shall, for the future, be allowed the City Treasurer or Receiver-General in his Accounts, to the Payment whereof this House shall not have given their Consent; except the Forty Shillings per Quarter, usually allowed the Lord-Mayor, and Twenty Shillings per Quarter, usually allowed the Recorder, Aldermen and Sheriffs, to be distributed in Alms. Midsum.
1735.

XV. THAT the Clerk be obliged to acquaint the Sheriffs, if any Petition should be presented to be read, that is contrary to the Laws of the House, if he knows it to be so; and that before such Petition be read, the previous Question be put. Post-Aff.
1749.

XVI. THAT upon the Application which is to be made at Michaelmas Assembly, for Five Hundred Pounds to be granted to the late Lord Mayor, it shall always be determined by Ballot only; and if rejected, that no Petition be received for said Sum on any future Assembly. Michaelm.

D

XVII.

XVII. THAT no Business be proceeded on in this House, when any of the Members thereof are absent, on any Conference with the Board of Aldermen, until their Return.

XVIII. THAT for the Future, the Ballot on the Petition for Five Hundred Pounds, to be granted to any Lord Mayor, be not proceeded on until a Receipt be produced for the Payment of Twenty Guineas to the Blue-Coat-Hospital, as appointed by the Act of Midsummer-Assembly, 1728: And also for the customary Bounty to the said Hospital, of Ten Pounds payable by every Alderman on his Election.

XIX. THAT no Petition shall be ballotted for by this House, from any Member, either of the Board of Aldermen, or of this House, for any lucrative Employment under this City, until the Petitioner previously declares that, in Case he is elected into said Office, he will immediately after resign his Seat in the Assembly of the City.

XX.

XX. THAT on any future Election of Common-Council Men to represent the Corporations of this City, if any Person shall be returned, who holds any Place or Employment, (to which a Salary is annexed), or is a Pensioner in, or under the Corporation of this City, he shall vacate the said Employment, or lose said Pension; and the said Place or Employment shall be deemed, and is hereby declared vacant, and another Citizen shall accordingly be appointed in his Place.

Easter,

XXI. THAT no Salary or Pension whatsoever, due or to become due from this City, to any Person or Persons, shall, for the Future, be allowed the City Treasurer or Receiver in his Accounts, in Case the Person or Persons to whom the same shall be due or payable, shall be hereafter elected or returned to serve as a Common-Council-Man for any Corporation in this City; and shall, at the Time he received said Salary or Pension, be of the Common-Council of this City.

XXII. THAT all Persons petitioning to be admitted into the Franchises and Liberties of this City by Birth, shall be, and are hereby obliged to pass through the same Guilds of which their respective Fathers were admitted free. And all Persons petitioning to be admitted free by Service, shall be, and are hereby obliged to pass through the same Guilds in which they were indented, and through none other.

Act of Assembly,
Mr.
1770.

XXIII. THAT from and after the 24th December, 1771, no Member of the Common-Council be elected to any place of Profit or Emolument in this City, or employed in any of the City-Works.

Christmas
Assembly.
1772.

XXIV. THAT after the 1st Day of May next, no Person shall be employed in any of the City-Works, without the Concurrence of this House.

XXV. THAT after the Ballots are taken, and any Part of them are told, no Person whatsoever shall be suffered to Ballot.

XXVI.

XXVI. THAT all Gifts, Grants and Donations whatsoever, shall, in future, be determined by Ballot only, (Alms excepted.) Michaelm.
Assembly,
1770.

XXVII. THAT no Question be put upon any Petition whatever, from any of the City Officers or Servants, for a Gratuity or Increase of Salary, until such Time as the Act of Assembly for increasng the City's Revenue, and lessening her Expences, be first repealed, so that they may be all placed upon an equal Footing. Act of Assembly,
Easter,
1786.

XXVIII. THAT any Alderman's Widow who hereafter Petitions for the Annuity usually granted, shall annex to said Petition her Affidavit, setting forth a full Account of the Provision made for her by her deceased Husband, whether by Settlement, Will, or otherwise. Act of Assembly,
Michaelm.

XXX. THAT these Laws, together with the Oath of a Common-Council-Man, be read every Quarter-Day.

 HENRY STRONG, Officer of Commons to the Hon.
the City of Dublin, No. 39, Jervais-street,

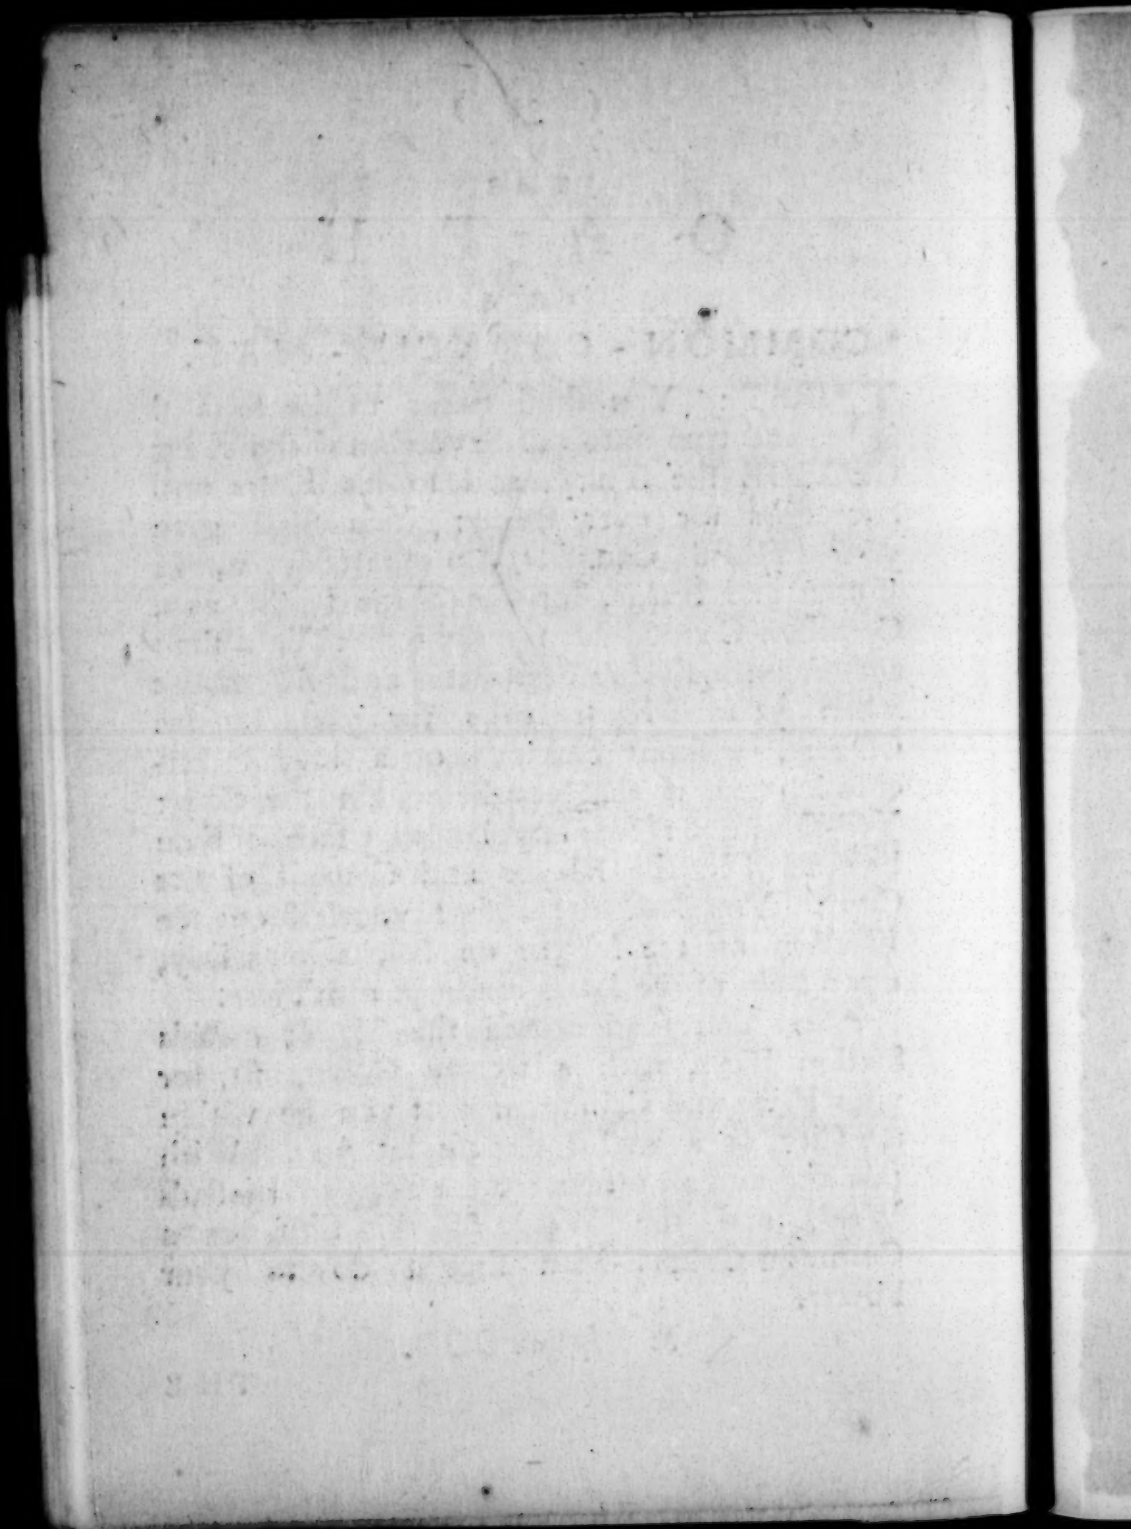

THE
O A T H
OF A COMMON - COUNCIL - MAN.

FIRST: You shall swear to be faithful and true unto our Sovereign Lord King GEORGE the Third, and to his Heirs and Successors for ever more: You shall give your faithful Council unto the Mayor, in Town and Fields, for the Time being, as a Common-Council-Man should do: You shall answer unto all due Summons and Assemblies when your Mayor calls for you, by his Officers, without Sicknes or a lawful Excuse let you, if that you be within the City: You shall not refuse any lawful Office, if you be elected by the Mayor and Council of the City: You shall not absent yourself on the Election of the Mayor on Michaelmas-Day, upon Pain of the Laws made in old Time.

Also, You shall attend the Mayor on his Station Days, with a seemly Gown, fit for your Place and Calling, if that you be within the City, or a lawful Excuse let you. With this and all others for the King's Majesty's Weal, and the Weal of this City, as a Common-Council-Man should do to your Power.

So help you GOD.

TO BE

Ministered unto every Freeman of the City of Dublin.

YOU shall Swear, That you shall be good and true to our Sovereign Lord King GEORGE the Third, and to the Heirs of our said Sovereign Lord the King; obeyfant and obedient you shall be to the MAYOR and MINISTERS of the City. The Franchises and Customs thereof you shall maintain, and this City keep harmless, in that that in you is. You shall be contributory to all Manner of Charges within this City, as Summons, Watches, Contributions, Tasks, Tal-lages, Lot and Scot, and all other Charges bearing your Part as a Freeman ought to do. You shall colour no foreign Goods whereby the King or this City might lose their Customs or Advantages. You shall know no Foreigner to buy or sell any Merchandizes with any other Foreigner within this City, or Franchises thereof,
but you shall warn the Mayor thereof.
You shall take no Apprentice but if he be freeborn, that is to say, no Bondsman's Son, E and

(3)
and for no less Term than for Seven Years, within the first Year you shall cause him to be inrolled, and at his Term's End you shall make him Free of this City, if he have well and truly served you. You shall also keep the King's Peace in your own Person, and shall always, whilst you are able,
and in your Power, keep a good Musket, Carabine or Fusée, in good, clean, and sufficient Order. You shall know no Gatherings, Conventicles nor Conspiracies, made against his Majesty's Peace, but you shall warn the Mayor thereof, or let it to your Power. You shall not be free Baker, Butcher, or Fisher, without you pay Custom;
and whatever Office that you be lawfully called unto within the said Franchises, you shall not refuse. All these Points and Articles you shall well and truly keep according to the Laws and Customs of this City, to your Power. So GOD you help, and by the holy Contents of this Book.

God save the King.

FINIS.
